

Please do not allow Indiana's Do Not Call List to be changed so that banks and others can call whenever they want. We enjoy our peace and quiet. Also, it is a waste of their time and money to call people who obviously don't want to be called. Instead of overriding Indiana's law, why not change the federal law to match? I bet other Americans would be grateful.